Oregon offers your company a competitive advantage. By providing professional, confidential project assistance as well as industry incentive packages, financing solutions and project-ready industrial sites, we help you take the next step in growing your business.

- A stable, high-quality workforce.
- Reliable, abundant and cost-effective energy and telecom networks.
- One of the lowest workers' compensation rates in the nation.
- No sales or business and occupation tax.
- Strategically located, Oregon ranks seventh in foreign exports per capita.
- Livable, clean communities, acclaimed cultural resources and abundant outdoor recreation.

“We believe we have the most competitive business climate in the Western U.S. with our zero sales tax, low energy costs and low workers' compensation premiums. Companies tell us they choose Oregon for our forward-thinking, highly skilled workforce. But whatever a company needs, we have the capacity and willingness to tailor a development package that will ensure success in Oregon.”
